- Club authorities are to maintain a practice log and ensure that all participants have completed the appropriate disclaimer form and are recorded in that log if participating in private practice.
- Any injuries sustained by participants in private practice are to be recorded in the club practice log book – any claim for injury is to be completed on the appropriate form and dispatched to Trans West Insurance brokers as detailed on the claim form.
- Clubs participating in providing private practice facilities and use are to ensure that all member licence holders and visiting license holders are familiar with these conditions and a suitable notice must be displayed to advise of this policy.
- Private practice approval is granted to all AKA Qld Inc affiliated clubs upon the approval of this policy, unless withdrawn by order of the State Executive / Council, and clubs must ensure that details outlined in the dot points of this policy are at all times adhered to in order to facilitate the liability and personal accident policies of the AKA Inc for their licensed members.

"This policy was presented to and approved by our insurers who added that it was taken as read that practice only took place at AKA approved circuits, and pit crew would have met the required waiver of insurance requirements."
